For details call your local vet clinic: Stuttgart at 431-2681/civ. 07031-15-681 or Heidelberg at 370-7202/civ. 06221-57-7202.

Free/Reduced Lunch Program Offered

The National School Lunch Program is considered a vital part of education in all public schools and has been designed to provide all children with a nutritious lunch, regardless of a sponsor's financial status.

Many service members and civilian employees qualify for this program. This is a completely confidential program that does not discriminate for any reason. For example, service members in the grade of E-6 and below with two to three children and a non-working spouse generally qualify.

Interested families are encouraged to contact their respective installation coordinators office: Patch, building 2316, room 1, 430-5450/civ. 0711-680-5450; Kelley, building 3315, room 132, 421-2322/civ. 0711-729-2322; Panzer, building 2931, room 1, 431-2683/civ. 07031-15-683; and Robinson, building 196, room 7, 420-7343/0711-819-6033.

Briefing Covers PCS/Preseparation

The Community Central Processing Facility will hold a required PCS/Preseparation Briefing Sept. 20 from 1 to 2:30 p.m. on Patch Barracks, building 2318, room 5. Service members (all branches of service) and civilians who are 120 to 180 calendar days of departing should attend.

Participants will receive valuable out-processing information from service agencies (i.e. transportation, medical, dental, vehicle registration, housing, CPF, ACS and Army personnel/finance). Signup is not necessary, just stop by. Additional info may be obtained from the CPF staff, 430-4064/civ. 0711-680-4064.

Housing Residents Asked to Clean Up

Residents of housing areas are reminded of their responsibility to help keep the installations clean by using the trash receptacles whenever possible, especially on play grounds. After using the receptacles ensure the lid is secured to keep trash where it belongs.

Promptly Report Suspicious Activities

Community members are reminded that just because the Cold War is over doesn't mean spies have stopped trying to gain information on unit readiness, troop morale and future operations.

To report suspicious activities like someone asking a lot of questions about military operations or attempting to enter a post illegally, call the Stuttgart Military Intelligence Detachment, 421-2206/civ. 0711-729-2206.

Pfennig Bazaar Around the Corner

Have you thought about volunteering at this year's Pfennig Bazaar held Oct. 2 through 6 in downtown Stuttgart? What is it? The bazaar is the largest flea market in this area, sponsored by the German/American Women's Club annually. The event, which started more than 30 years ago, is a fundraiser which supports both the American and German communities.

Volunteering is easy, rewarding and fun. Wear comfortable clothing and good walking shoes. There are no secure areas to store handbags, so you may want to wear a fanny pack or light jacket with pockets for money and personal items.

On behalf of the German and American Bazaar chairs, volunteers are thanked in advance for sharing the experience with them. The Bazaar is a fun and exciting event and you won't want to miss it. For more info about being a volunteer for this worthwhile event, contact Brenda Pritchard, 07157-52-3047 or e-mail (bnbpritchard@surf1.de), or Andrea Powers, 07031-23-0066 or e-mail (thepowers@hotmail.com).
